

FAU football players came to The Karen Slattery Educational Research Center for Child Development to toss the ball with 4 year olds who built a replica of the University's stadium. Jonathan Wallace, Chris Chappell, Travis Jones, and Alex Deleon from FAU's team traded a little football training for a little art appreciation. The mini-stadium was later put on display at the Athletics Ticket Sales office.

