

FAU'S COLLEGE OF EDUCATION VISITS THE U.S. CAPITOL

Rangasamy Ramasamy, PhD. Professor Department of Exceptional Student Education and Valerie Bristor, Dean, PhD. College of Education photographed in the office of U.S. Representative Frederica S. Wilson.

On June 7, 2016, Dean Valerie Bristor and Dr. Rangasamy Ramasamy from FAU's College of Education, attended the AACTE Washington Week (American Association of Colleges for Teacher Education) in Washington D.C. The week's events included the Holmes Scholars Summer Policy Institute and a Day on the Hill. The College of Education was recently accepted into the AACTE Holmes Scholars Program, which supports doctoral students from historically underrepresented backgrounds pursuing careers in education. In addition to the conference, Dean Bristor and Dr. Ramasamy visited legislative offices to share information on the Holmes Scholars Program as well as highlights from the College of Education.

Legislative Update, Vol. 4, Issue 20

(From left to right) Education Affairs Policy Advisor Mr. Kevin Ashley, Dr. Rangasamy Ramasamy (Professor, Dept. of Exceptional Student Education, FAU), Dr. Valerie J. Bristor (Dean, College of Education, FAU), and Policy Advisor Edita Rigova posing for a photograph in the office of U.S. Representative Alcee L. Hasting.