

BUSH SISTERS RECOGNIZED BY FAU PRESIDENT JOHN KELLY

Front row, left to right: Grace Bush, Giah Bush, Gilana Bush, Galatia Bush; Middle row, left to right: Gabrielle Bush, Gisla Bush, Mercedes Chennault, Gisla & Baruch Bush, Valerie Bristor, Carrie Bush; Back Row left to right: William Chennault, Bobby Bush, Sr., Benjamin Bush, Bobby Bush, Jr.

FAU President John Kelly recognized Bush sisters, Grace, Gabriella and Gisla, at his 2014 FAU State of the University Address. All three sisters graduated from FAU High School and all three hold degrees from Florida Atlantic University.

Gisla, graduated from both FAU High and FAU University. She holds a Bachelor's Degree in Urban Design with cum laude honors and is currently working on a Master's Degree in Urban and Regional Planning with a specialization in Design in Urban Redevelopment and Economic Planning at FAU. Gilsa wants to be Secretary of Housing and Urban Development.

Gabrielle received a bachelor's degree in health administration from FAU College of Business cum laude, just three months after graduating from FAU High School. Gabrielle wants to be a Secretary of Health.

Grace was 16 when she graduated magna cum laude from FAU with a bachelor's in criminal justice just one week before receiving a high school diploma from FAU High School. Grace wants to be the Chief Justice of the Supreme Court.

