Dublin, Ireland

June 3 – June 18, 2017

Study abroad in the “Emerald Isle” this summer. The River Liffey divides the city into two distinct areas, both of which have seen an upswing in recent years. But as Joyce, Yeats, Swift, and their modern counterparts have eloquently demonstrated, every corner pub, emerald green, and Georgian square of Ireland’s largest city holds a story waiting to be shared.

Academic Program: This summer program is a College of Education Graduate study abroad program offered by the Department of Curriculum, Culture, and Educational Inquiry. The course has been designed to engage the learner in a comparative investigation of educational trends and issues in the USA, Ireland, and other European countries. The academic offering is a Directed Independent Study format that includes telecommuting pre and post international experience, as well as on-site tutorials with the professor in addition to a research component.
