

Professor Marinaccio Wins 2014 Faculty Talon Award

FAU Provost Gary Perry congratulates Associate Professor Philomena Marinaccio

Florida Atlantic University Alumni Association bestowed one of four awards on Thursday, Oct. 30, 2014 to Philomena Marinaccio, Associate Professor, Department of Teaching and Learning in the College of Education. Gary Perry, Provost, presented the Faculty Talon Award to her during the 2014 Talon Leadership Awards Ceremony held on the Boca Raton Campus at the Marleen and Harold Forkas Alumni Center.

Marinaccio received the award for the leadership, dedication and service she demonstrated in her research, mentoring, and advising of FAU students and student researchers. She is an FAU alumni, having earned the Ed.S. in Curriculum & Supervision, before earning a Ph.D. at the University of Miami. She has taught reading education courses at FAU for more than ten years.

In her acceptance remarks, Marinaccio dedicated her award in memory of her mentor, Stephen H. Voss, “one of FAU’s founding fathers” who maintained “an open-door policy” for his advisees.
